In 2016 I moved to Los Angeles from Chicago. I wanted to live closer to my dad's family - who had recently dropped out of graduate school and was ~~in Los Angeles~~ ^{and} ~~and I wanted to be close to the~~ ^{and I wanted to be close to the} ~~same for~~ ^{same for} (Also I wanted to be close to the T Dade community and the spiritual and - ~~same for~~ ^{same for})

Shortly after I moved some friends invited me to an IFA service to learn about IFA started from the ~~community~~ ^{community} when our dinner the told me how IFA was based in Nigeria and was a way for the diaspora transported to the Caribbean and I had left visited Friends invited me to go to them to an IFA service in Los Angeles. I didn't know much about IFA except that it was the root of dayna Adkins of / and but it has many years of history in Haitian Vodou and is similar (called trances in Vodou) the energy that can enter your body and it was many years ago, but my mother had had a close rel. w/ a great (Haitian) doctor on an art trip in Haiti. It had been in live w/ a young Haitian doctor (in the 80s) who introduced me to the spiritual. They said that IFA uses the same knowledge of energetics.

I met Dabo after I moved to Los Angeles from Chicago. Some friends from the T Dade community
